ART, LIKE LOVE, IS NEVER EASY

Meet George Seurat, the father of post-impressionist pointillism, as he creates his masterpiece "A Sunday Afternoon on the Island of La Grande Latte," and his love, a beautiful young woman known simply as "Dot." What it takes for each of them to accomplish their love will thrill you through some of the greatest music of the last 100 years

By Stephen Sondheim and James Lapine

 ENSEMBLE/Newsies

For this production we will be casting some females as newsboys. The roles that are assigned gender are listed to the right. We are being true to the history, as there were girls in the group at the time, and we know that we will have more resources that way. All newsboys and girls will have to be able to dance well and sing. The dancing in this show is energetic and iconic. If you are interested in being a newsie, please be prepared for the dance audition, with appropriate dancewear and shoes, and be warmed up when you arrive. Depending on the talent we see on the first two nights, we may have callbacks on April 16, for some leading roles and dancing roles, so please consider that in your scheduling.

To audition, prepare a song (musical theatre preferred), be prepared to read from the script, and dress for dance. Scripts can be checked out at the Box Office through April 10, 2019 ($10 deposit required). Scripts can't be checked out after this date.
