THEATRE INSPIRES...

Salina Community Theatre has supported children's programming since its beginning, bringing in a variety of traveling productions for young people. Salina Theatre for Young People (STYP) was the first incarnation of a structured children's program. Over the years, the program's name was updated to Center for Theatre Arts, reflecting the expansion from theatre classes to vocal music and theatre dance classes for all ages. We offer classes for students from 3 years old through adulthood, and are the only performing arts academy between Topeka and Denver.

Center for Theatre Arts' classes and shows set a precedent for students who are passionate about the arts, and provide opportunities that might otherwise be unavailable to students in this area. The success of the program is evidenced by the number of CTA graduates that have gone on to theatre arts related careers. While not all students have become stars of the stage, each student can have an enriching experience by learning to sing, dance, and act in CTA classes.

A single layer black chiffon skirt may be worn. Snug ballet sweaters for warmth are also acceptable. Men must wear a black/white leotard or fitted shirt with black tights and black canvas ballet shoes. Fitted black leggings with tan canvas shoes are also acceptable.
