OCTOBER 16-
NOVEMBER 1

WRITTEN BY Steven Dietz

Have you ever been tempted to flee your own life?

Becky Foster is caught in middle age, middle management and in a middling marriage – with no prospects for change on the horizon. Then one night a socially inept and grief-struck millionaire stumbles into the car dealership where Becky works. Becky is offered nothing short of a new life.

Becky's New Car is witty and full of delicious deadpan humor and U-turn plot twists. It's a devious and delightful romp down the road not taken.

But there's more under the hood of this Steven Dietz play than just the comedy. The story has depth. It's a perfect blend of hilarious comedy and substantial weight, a story about choices and consequences that could happen to anyone.

Fall classes in full swing

More than 30 acting, dance, and vocal classes began September 8 at Center for Theatre Arts. But it's not too late! There are still a few openings, so call 785.827.6126 today to check and see if the class you want is available.

CTA offers classes for students age four through senior citizens. From beginner to seasoned performer, we have a class level designed for you!

Center for Theatre Arts is the only academy between Topeka and Denver providing year-round education and opportunities in acting, dance, and vocal performance.

SCHOOL PERFORMANCES

October 7-9 | 9:30AM & 1:00PM

PUBLIC PERFORMANCE

October 10 | 2:00PM

It's Junie B.'s first day of first grade and a lot of things have changed: Lucille doesn't want to be her best pal, she makes friends with Herb, the new kid, she has trouble reading the blackboard, and her teacher thinks she might need glasses. Throw in a friendly cafeteria lady, a kickball tournament and a "Top-Secret Personal Beeswax Journal," and first grade has never been more exciting! Junie B. Jones is a comical, and not strictly-for-kids musical.
