for a good cause.

FEBRUARY 5-20

WRITTEN BY Tim Firth

When Annie's husband John dies of leukemia, she and her friend Chris resolve to raise money for the local hospital waiting room. They manage to persuade other members of their women's group to pose nude with them for an "alternative" calendar. The news of the women's charitable venture spreads like wildfire, and hordes of press pursue them. The calendar is a success, but Chris and Annie's friendship is put to the test under the strain of their new-found fame.

Tales OF A 4th Grade Nothing

MARCH 5 | 2:00PM
ADULTS $16 | STUDENTS $9 (PRICES INCLUDE TAX)

Nine-year-old Peter Hatcher’s life would be sweet if it weren’t for Fudge, his toddler terror of a brother. Fudge seems to get away with everything, whether he’s throwing a tantrum at the shoe store, acting like a bird on the jungle gym and knocking out his two front teeth, or scribbling all over Peter’s homework! It’s enough to make him feel like a fourth grade nothing!

When Peter’s beloved pet turtle disappears, he knows that Fudge is behind it. This is the last straw – how can he get his parents to pay attention to him for a change?

This production captures all the humor, sibling rivalry, and elementary school angst of Judy Blume’s classic book.

Call 785.827.3033 for tickets, or use the order form inside.
